SPANISH 110 - Basic Spanish Review

Course Description

SPANISH 110 is an intensive course that covers the equivalent of Spanish 101 and Spanish 102, the first two courses of the First-Year Spanish Language Program at the University of Washington. These elementary-level language courses have been designed to develop basic communication skills in both oral and written Spanish. By introducing the learner to the rich culture of the Spanish-speaking world, including the Hispanic/Latino communities in the U.S., this course aims also to develop students' intercultural knowledge and understanding.

This course may not be taken in addition to Spanish 101 or Spanish 102. It is open to students who have scored 10-44 on the SP100A placement test.

For information on registration policies and procedures visit the following webpage: http://spanport.washington.edu/registration-policies-and-procedures

Required Materials

- Access key to MySpanishLab (Gente e-workbook and labmanual)
- A bilingual dictionary. (You will receive a free copy of The Oxford New Spanish Dictionary with your customized package for the 100-level series)

Course Objectives

To see the course objectives click HERE

Course Calendar

To see the course calendar click HERE

Evaluation

| 4 EXAMS | 40% |
| 2 ORAL EXAMS | 10% |
| 5 COMPOSITIONS | 20% |
| CLASS PARTICIPATION | 10% |

| 4 COLLABORATIVE TASKS | 10% |
| HOMEWORK | 10% |

GRADING SCALE
Incomplete grades will NOT be granted in this course, under any circumstance.

0.7 is the minimum grade needed to pass SPANISH 110.

2.0 is the minimum grade needed in SPANISH 103 to fulfill the foreign language requirement.

Students' Responsibilities

As a student in this class, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class everyday.
- Participate in all classroom activities, making an effort to use Spanish as much as possible.
- Come to class always prepared, having read and studied the materials assigned by your instructor.
- Submit all assignments on the due date, regardless of whether you are present in class or not.
- Contact a classmate when missing a class to get updated on classroom activities and assignments. You are responsible for all material presented in class and all assigned homework, whether you are present in class or not.
- Check your email everyday and visit the course webpage regularly to keep updated on important class information and changes on due dates.
- Follow common courtesy norms and turn off your cellular phone before class begins.

SPANISH LANGUAGE

Spanish is the language of communication in the class, from day one. English will be kept to a minimum by both the teacher and the students.

GRADES

You will have access to your grades via Gradebook throughout the entire term. It is your responsibility to make sure the information on your Gradebook is correct and updated. If there is a problem with a grade, you should contact your instructor as soon as possible.

OFFICE HOURS

Remember that your teacher is available outside class to answer any question you may have concerning either the content of the course or your performance on it. If you think you need extra help or have problems with any aspect of the course, make sure to contact him/her before it is too late. If his/her office hours do not work for you, schedule an appointment at a different time. Do not discuss personal issues with your teacher during class time.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

As a student of the University of Washington you are expected to practice high standards of academic and professional honesty and integrity, to be informed of the Student Conduct Code, and to follow it.

To learn about the Student Conduct Code, related policies, student conduct process, and other related information please visit:

http://www.washington.edu/cssc/expectations/

http://www.washington.edu/cssc/for-students/academic-misconduct/

Students who engage in academic misconduct as described in the Student Conduct Code (cheating, falsification, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, multiple submissions, etc.) will be reported to the Director of Community Standards & Student Conduct.

UW policies and resources
Students with either permanent or temporary disabilities should contact the DRS office: 011 Mary Gates, Box 352808, (206) 543-8924, uwdrs@uw.edu

If you have a letter from Disabled Student Services, please present this letter to your instructor at the beginning of the quarter so s/he can provide the necessary academic accommodations.

Information about disability resources for students may be found at http://depts.washington.edu/uwdrs/

RELLIGIOUS ACCOMMODATIONS

Washington state law requires that UW develop a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The UW's policy including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available at Religious Accommodation Policy. Accommodations must be requested within the first two weeks of this course using the Religious Accommodations Request form.

Additional resources for Students

Language Learning Center

Internet resources

Department of Spanish & Portuguese Studies
University of Washington
C-104 Padelford Hall
Box 354360
Seattle, WA 98195-4360

Phone: (206) 543-2020
Fax: (206) 685-7054
spsuw@uw.edu

Source URL: https://spanport.washington.edu/spanish-110-basic-spanish-review