MINOR IN PORTUGUESE LANGUAGE AND LUSO-BRAZILIAN STUDIES
This Minor offers a combination of Portuguese language classes with elective courses with a focus on the Luso-Brazilian world. The elective classes are offered in Latin American and Caribbean Studies, African Studies, Cultural Studies, Interdisciplinary Studies, Sociology, Anthropology, Film, History, Global Health, and other related areas. The minor consists of 15 credits of Portuguese language classes at the intermediate level (PORT 202 and 203) and higher (PORT 301) and 10 credits of elective classes with a focus in the Portuguese-speaking world. The elective classes are mostly offered in English.

LIST OF ELECTIVE CLASSES APPROVED FOR THE MINOR:
JSIS A 243, JSIS A 410, JSIS A 365/PORT 365, PORT 366, JSIS B 436/POL S 436, HST/LAC 482, JSIS A 355/SOC 355

PRE-REQUISITES
SPAN 203 or SPAN 216; or SPAN 301, 302, 303, 314, 315, 316, any of which can be taken concurrently. Native and Heritage Speakers of Spanish are also welcome. Please consult your instructor for more details.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
This is an intensive Portuguese course designed for Spanish speakers. The course focuses on the similarities and differences between Spanish and Portuguese. Although, many references will be made to Spanish during class time, the language of instruction is Portuguese. Students are encouraged to contrast and compare Portuguese with Spanish and build up their language skills in Portuguese based on such comparisons.
In this course, students will:

- develop some basic communicative skills in Portuguese, contrasting and comparing with Spanish.
- start to understand simple ideas expressed by other speakers.
- use Portuguese to communicate simple ideas about self, family, study, work, daily routines, leisure activities, houses, furniture, chores, and health.
- interact with authentic Portuguese texts on a variety of simple subjects.
- attain an increased awareness of and cultural sensitivity to the Portuguese language.
- gain knowledge of some social and historical aspects of the Portuguese-speaking world.
- learn more about the Portuguese-speaking communities in Seattle.

The Portuguese Program at UW teaches language communicatively, which means that all courses are taught in Portuguese, except for brief moments of English when absolutely necessary to facilitate the flow of the course. In a communicative language class, students are expected to be active co-participants in their own learning.

This requires that you come to class prepared to engage in the day’s work by having read all required material and completed assignments listed on the schedule.

The content of the Portuguese classes and the way in which students’ work is assessed are based on the theoretical and pedagogical guidelines developed by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL). These are summarized in the World-Readiness for Language Learning (ACTFL, 2015), whose main goals of instruction are as follows:

- COMMUNICATION: Communicate effectively in more than one language.
- CULTURES: Interact with cultural competence and understanding.
- CONNECTIONS: Connect with other disciplines and acquire information.
- COMPARISONS: Develop insight into the nature of language and culture.
- COMMUNITIES: Participate in multilingual communities at home and around the world.

The activities and homework assignments that you will complete in class and the assessment tools with which your work will be evaluated have been created to accomplish and reflect the instructional objectives described in the Standards. The content of your class has also been designed to develop your ability to communicate in three different modes—interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational:
By the end of PORT 105, students are expected to achieve a Novice High level in Portuguese, which is described in the 2012 ACTFL Guidelines as follows:

Novice High
Speakers at the Novice High sublevel are able to handle a variety of tasks pertaining to the Intermediate level, but are unable to sustain performance at that level. They are able to manage successfully a number of uncomplicated communicative tasks in straightforward social situations. Conversation is restricted to a few of the predictable topics necessary for survival in the target language culture, such as basic personal information, basic objects, and a limited number of activities, preferences, and immediate needs. Novice High speakers respond to simple, direct questions or requests for information. They are also able to ask a few formulaic questions.

Novice High speakers are able to express personal meaning by relying heavily on learned phrases or recombination of these and what they hear from their interlocutor. Their language consists primarily of short and sometimes incomplete sentences in the present, and may be hesitant or inaccurate. On the other hand, since their language often consists of expansions of learned material and stock phrases, they may sometimes sound surprisingly fluent and accurate. Pronunciation, vocabulary, and syntax may be strongly influenced by the first language. Frequent misunderstandings may arise but, with repetition or rephrasing, Novice High speakers can generally be understood by sympathetic interlocutors used to non-natives. When called on to handle a variety of topics and perform functions pertaining to the Intermediate level, a Novice High speaker can sometimes respond in intelligible sentences, but will not be able to sustain sentence-level discourse.

CLASS GOAL

ACADEMIC CONDUCT
The Student Conduct Code explains that admission to University of Washington carries with it the presumption that students will practice high standards of professional honesty and integrity (WAC 478-120-020 [2]). The Portuguese Program supports and follows the Student Conduct Code at UW. Please familiarize yourself with this code as it governs acceptable classroom behavior, describes what constitutes cheating or plagiarism, and defines the procedure for responding to code violations.

In order to have a classroom environment conducive to learning and free of distractions, we ask that you turn your cell phones to silent (or off) prior to entering your Portuguese class. You are allowed to use your laptop or tablet during your regular classes, but you cannot turn them on during any of your exams. Find more information on the Student Conduct Code and the Vision and Values for the student community in the link below: http://www.washington.edu/cssc/misson-statement/vision-values/

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:
Disability Resources for Students (DRS) is a unit within the Division of Student Life dedicated to ensuring access and inclusion for all students with disabilities on the Seattle campus enrolled in undergraduate, graduate, professional, Evening Degree and Access programs. DRS serves approximately 1,600 students with either temporary or permanent physical, health, learning, sensory or psychological disabilities. Students partner with this office to establish services for their access and inclusion on campus. DRS is located in 011 Mary Gates. They can also be reached by email uwdrs@uw.edu or phone: 206-543-8924 (Voice & Relay).

Prospective or current students have the opportunity to speak with a DRS counselor without an appointment during Counselor on Duty (COD) hours. COD hours are designed for questions that can be addressed in 15 minutes or less. If the question is complex, a full-hour appointment will be scheduled for another day. Phone questions are welcome. Please visit the DRS site for more details: http://depts.washington.edu/uwdrs/

RESEARCH:
The Portuguese Program routinely conducts research on instructional practices. This research provides valuable data for program assessment. Occasionally throughout the quarter you may be invited to participate in on-going studies either during regular class time or outside of class hours. As the researcher and/or your instructor will explain, participation in any such studies is absolutely voluntary and your performance on tests intended for studies will in no way affect your grade in the course.

COURSE EVALUATION
The evaluation system is based on students’ ability to participate actively and effectively in a wide variety of language related activities both in and out of the classroom. This entails a kind of apprenticeship into the language and progress is a result of the students’ own efforts. A strategy of continuous application and fulfillment of course requirements enable students to exercise a great deal of direct control over their final grade.

CONTACT WITH INSTRUCTORS
Your first contact is your instructor who may be reached through email, by telephone, or in person during office hours or by appointment. Please allow 24 hours for your instructor to answer emails from Monday to Friday. During weekends, your instructor may not be available to answer emails.

EXPLANATION OF EVALUATION PROCEDURES

1. Preparedness, Participation, and Attendance

Students are allowed a maximum of 2 unexcused absences throughout the quarter. Students who exceed the number of unexcused absences will have their participation grade lowered.

Participation consists of the assessment of the quality of the student’s contributions to the class and language learning. Participation is not an attendance grade, but rather a measure of each student’s language learning activity. We expect that all students will engage in the course in ways that will advance language learning.

Participation will be evaluated through the level of preparation; discussions of readings and textbook exercises, etc.; participation in oral activities; contributions to pair and small group work; and use of Portuguese as the language of communication in the classroom. You are expected to use Portuguese to communicate with your fellow students and instructor during your class (except when discussing your grades or any administrative matters related to your class).
2. Homework
Purpose:
• To give you the opportunity to experiment with and use Portuguese in a variety of activities/contexts.
• To help you prepare for your in-class work.

How it works:
- In-class Homework: Each day before class, students are expected to have the material outlined in the schedule completed (e.g., all textbook readings and listening comprehension activities, compositions, or extra homework assigned by the instructor). You are expected to do your online workbook exercises in Canvas and listen to all Podcasts before class.
- An assignment consists of every single activity for the lesson assigned by your instructor. Pay attention to spelling, capitalization, punctuation, and accentuation as you complete your work.
- You must complete the activities by the deadline in syllabus. Late homework will affect your grade. You must complete all of the assignments for each of the lessons unless otherwise instructed.

3. Mid-term oral practice
Purpose:
• To give you the opportunity to speak Portuguese with a classmate and listen to your own production
• To evaluate you in the acquisition and use of Portuguese in the interpersonal and presentational mode

How it works:
The mid-term oral practice will consist in a dialogue in Portuguese with a classmate. Your dialogue should last around 5-7 minutes and should be voice-recorded. Further details will be provided by your instructor.

4. Final Oral Interview
Purpose:
• To give you the opportunity to speak Portuguese in a specific social context
• To evaluate you in the acquisition and use of Portuguese in the interpersonal mode

How it works:
The final oral interview will consist of a one-on-one conversation with your instructor. It will be conducted at the end of the quarter, and you will be evaluated with regard to the expected proficiency level of students in your course. The interview will last 10 minutes.

5. Portfolio
Purpose: To give you the opportunity to work on different listening and written texts, to interact with native speakers, and to know more about the target culture (interpersonal and interpretive modes).

How it works:
You will have to complete two comprehensive portfolio activities. These tasks will require you to work with authentic materials or to use Portuguese in the community and to write reflections on your experience. The completed assignments will be submitted online (on Canvas) on the deadline established in the schedule. Further details about the portfolio entries will be provided by the instructor at a later date during the semester.
6. Compositions

Purpose: To validate comprehension of material in the chapters (interpretive and presentational modes), and to allow students to assess their knowledge of the material learned.

How they work:
Students will expand the compositions from the exam at home and make the appropriate corrections. The use of dictionaries is allowed, but online translators are not to be used for this assignment. This work should represent the effort of the student only, please do not ask for help from friends or other instructor to review or rewrite your composition. This will be considered plagiarism. You will submit this assignment on Canvas.

7. Exams and Final

Purpose: To validate comprehension of material in the chapters (interpretive and presentational modes), and to allow students to assess their knowledge of the material learned.

How they work:
Each exam may cover any and all of the material related to a particular lesson, and it will consist of reading and listening comprehension exercises and a short composition. The exams are significant measurements of your comprehension of the material in the lesson.
